EMPLOYER'S FEEDBACK:

Our employers are our major stakeholders, feedback of whom gives us input regarding enhancing the employability of our students. Their feedback is valuable for us as it provides the basis for further enrichment in curriculum aspects and overall performance of students. We have received feedback from our major recruiters.

Analysis of the Feedback:

We have collected feedback from the employers where we ask our employers to comment on the curriculum. We have received feedback from various employers. But no special comment was given on the curriculum. However, we did follow analysis from the received feedback forms: In general, the employers are happy with the student of our institute and they rated the performance of our students as "Good" and "Satisfactory" The employers reported that they would like to employ more students from our institute. The employers also reported that they would like to recommend our students to other organization. The feedback suggested the need for more practical labs and add on courses.

FEEDBACK FROM FACULTY:

The institute views its teachers as a valuable stakeholder in the teaching learning process. Teacher's feedback offers important perspectives for evaluating academics and student services. Teacher's feedback occupies a prominent position in the strategic development policies. It also helps to improve the accountability of the system.

FEEDBACK ANALYSIS:

Feedback analysis of faculty suggested that the learning objectives are clear and there is little to no change in syllabus. Some suggestions that came through faculties is to bridge the gap between industry standards, requirement of online resources required in teaching with research activities. Some new books and journals were requested by the faculties. Few workshops and FDPs were also requested.

STUDENT SATISFACTION SURVEY

To conduct Student Satisfaction Survey (SSS) on Teaching Learning Process during the academic year 2022-2023, a questionnaire was designed. This printed questionnaire was distributed to all courses students and was collected by class coordinators. To get a neutral, unbiased and objective response from the respondents, they were not asked to write their names in the questionnaire. The questionnaire was prepared covering various aspects of Teaching Learning Process in the College. All of 18 questions in the questionnaire had five responses out of which the respondent was asked to tick the response which he/she considered to be the most appropriate. The responses were rated in the weightage 0 to 4.

The questionnaire submitted by the students was analyzed thoroughly and quantitatively. The committee took the utmost care in tabulating the various aspects of the questionnaires and finally plotted the ratings into comprehensive bar diagram.
