Venue	Seminar Hall
Organized by	IAMR
Participants By	IAMR Students
Activity In charge	Ms. Monika Sharma and Dr. Huma Siddique
Content	A debate competition was been organized by Ms. Monika Sharma and Dr. Huma Siddique for the students of Management Department on the Topic "Violence against men and women." In all we had 5 teams been participated in the activity each consisting of 8 students. Various points regarding the issues were been explored by the students and the opposite team had debated on the topic very well. The basic points been raised by the students were : formation of integrated policies for men and women, rights of women's were identified, Facts and figures of the same were discussed, gender equality issues etc. This was a great event exploring two sides of the same coin and the best 3 teams were been identified and were motivated by certificates been presented by the head of the department. The first team got the certificates as well as the medals and the event ended with the great zeal and enthusiasm. Lastly the feedback of the students was taken and the event ended.
Objective	Debate Competition for students is very influential as it helps them to boost their confidence, remove the fear of speaking in public, develop critical thinking, how to think and communicate under pressure.
Outcome of the Activity	The main aspiration of being a part of the debate is to convey yourself in a concise way so that people around you understand your point of view and your thought process, but it should be done with using the logic that is convincing and effective.

Venue	Seminar Hall
Organized by	IAMR
Participants By	IAMR Students
Activity In charge	DR.HUMA SIDDIQUI
Content	Ramadan, the ninth month in the Muslim calendar, is a special time for the Muslim community. As a most blessed month, it is a time for reflection, prayer and renewal of faith. Muslims worldwide fast from dawn to sunset, abstaining totally from food, drink, smoking and other sensual pleasures to complete one of the five pillars of Islam and to achieve greater self-discipline, self-purification, and compassion for those less fortunate. A Muslim who intends to fast rises an hour or two before dawn and has an early breakfast. All eating and drinking must cease approximately one and half-hours before sunrise which is the start of the fasting period. The fast is broken at the time of sundown, traditionally with dates and water, followed by the main meal after prayers. This is a voluntary and viewed as a joyous occasion. After the end of Ramadan, a gleeful festive and joyous holiday known as Eid al-Fitr [eed ul fit-ur] is celebrated.
Objective	To Create awareness of all the religion in create an sense of unity amongst students.
Outcome of the Activity	Students of IAMR were made aware about the purpose of celebrating EID and they were happy at the end of the session.

Venue	Seminar Hall
Organized by	IAMIR
Participants By	IAMIR Students
Activity In charge	Dr. Suresh and Dr. Madhurima
Content	Blood cannot be manufactured in factories it can only come from generous donors. To cater to this demand a Blood Donation Camp was been organized for all the students as well as the faculties by the Physiotherapy Department on 10th October 2018 at IAMR. This blood donation camp was organized with a belief that it's the fastest way to solve the problem of blood shortage. Blood donation is a simple four steps process that started with the registration followed by medical history check and mini physical and if fit then allowed donating finally by providing them the refreshments and certificate of donation. The donors were also give a card valid till one year for the need of blood in future. So its said that you don't need the reason to give blood, you just need your own reason. Some of them give blood because it was suggested by some of our friends, while some of them think of the family members who needs blood and while some believe that that's the right think to do. Students and Faculties showed a great zeal in donating the blood and around more than 50 donors were noted for the blood donation camp. The camp started from morning and continued the whole day. The Donors were seated comfortably and was conducted safely.
Objective	To help the society and complete the camp with maximum collection of blood for the needy people.

Report on Diwali Festival

Report
Name of the Activity	Celebration For Diwali Festival
Date	6 th Nov. 2018
Venue	Seminar Hall
Organized by	IAMR
Participants By	IAMR Students
Activity In charge	Ms. Yamini Dixit & Neha Rai
Content	This year we wanted to celebrate our Diwali differently. We had planned the whole program precisely. There were games and entertainment programs by our students. And to our amazement, all the parents had an active participation in the programs. Their faces were gleaming with joy and laughter. There was a speech given by our College CR regarding the importance of looking after your loved ones and grandparents. The speech was well said because during the conclusion one could see teardrops in every eye. The principal gave away prizes to all the parents as a token of appreciation for their active participation.
Objective	To have a positive impact on the students, helping them understand the importance of their grandparents in their lives.
Outcome of the Activity	We were happy that we could remove the darkness from their hearts by filling it with light.
